To whom it may concern,

During our recent working relationship with Sean on the 2010 Winter Olympics and the Empire Field temporary stadium in Vancouver BC, we experienced a committed and professional individual. Sean's attitude and approach towards the dynamics of NUSSLI's business was refreshing and at times ventured outside the call of duty. Sean's exceptional knowledge of the local codes combined with product knowledge made him an invaluable resource and complimented our team. His contributed to the success of our projects is held in high regard with our project managers and demonstrated his ability to adapt. I would highly recommend Sean as a valuable, yet competitive resource for similar projects.

Kind regards,

Christian Künzli
